

S I M S O N
M A X W E L L

SIMSON-MAXWELL
Power Generation and Industrial Engines
Production and Engineering Manager
Port Coquitlam Branch

Simson Maxwell is a leading supplier of Power Generators and Industrial Engines. With locations across Canada, we are recognised for expertise in custom design, engineering, sales and service of quality power generation and electrical control equipment. Simson Maxwell is the manufacturer of the SIMMAX family of power generation products and are the exclusive manufacturers' representative for a number of lines of industrial engines.

Simson Maxwell is currently recruiting for a Production and Engineering Manager. This challenging position provides an excellent opportunity for a career-minded individual offering potential for advancement with a growing organization.

The successful applicant will be required to be proficient in the following areas:

- Leadership
- Electrical and Mechanical Engineering
- Production Management
- Communication
- Power Generation products and applications

Please refer to the attached job description for more detailed role explanation.

Simson Maxwell offers excellent remuneration and a comprehensive benefits package.

Please forward your resume with a covering letter by April 8, 2016 to:

Human Resources
Email: hr@simmax.com

Please quote "Production and Engineering Manager" in the subject line of your e-mail
Only those candidates considered will be contacted.